Quantum National Bank Crosses $500 Million Asset Threshold

SUWANEE, GA, June 30, 2019 – Quantum National Bank has exceeded $500 million in total assets the Bank’s CEO, Bryan Cohen, has announced. The $500 million mark is a sign of the Bank’s strength, stability and its commitment to the community as it approaches its 24th anniversary. Quantum has grown consistently over the past five years and is now one of the largest locally owned banks in the state of Georgia.

Since the bank’s founding in December 1995 by Dr. Narasimhulu Neelagaru (known to all as Dr. Neel), Quantum has been focused on service to the metro Atlanta community and its diverse population. Dr. Neel continues to lead the Bank today as Chairman of the Board, supported by a board of directors and employees who are active members of the communities served.

“Achieving this milestone is a significant accomplishment and will allow us to offer our customers an expanded selection of products and services,” said CEO Bryan Cohen. “It is a result of over 20 years of leadership from Dr. Neel as well as dedication and commitment from our entire team of employees. Our conventional, construction and SBA lending teams, our cash management and retail teams as well as those who serve behind the scenes have consistently performed at the top of their game to achieve this result.”

Quantum National Bank is a nationally-chartered bank headquartered in Suwanee, GA. Quantum now has over $500 million in assets and three branch locations in Suwanee, Buckhead and Milton serving largely the business community in the metropolitan Atlanta market. Quantum prides itself on being Your Banking Partner for Success.
